

Infinity in mathematics teaching in primary school

BRANISLAV POPOVIĆ

Faculty of Science, University of Kragujevac, Serbia
bpopovic@kg.ac.rs

In this presentation we discuss the concepts of geometry and arithmetic that are introduced in the initial teaching of mathematics and which contain the idea of infinity. For young pupils (as well as for the ancient Greeks) infinity is primarily potential infinity which has solid support in their intuition.