

Some properties of the $q$ -quadratic lattices

---

REZAN SEVINIK ADIGÜZEL

Department of Mathematics, Faculty of Arts and Sciences Atılım University, Ankara, Turkey

rezan.adiguzel@atilim.edu.tr

The central idea of this talk is to introduce some differences between the properties for  $q$ -linear and  $q$ -quadratic lattices. Such lattices are defined for the second order linear difference equation of hypergeometric type. Polynomial solutions of such difference equations are well known. Their theory are important in mathematical physics.